

Dialogue In a Diverse World

This four-part series is led by Melany Felton or Charon Mckinley. Communicating in a Diverse World is the overview module where the fundamental skills and rules of dialogue are explored. After that prerequisite course is completed, the other three courses present actual Dialogue sessions addressing cultural, gender, and generational issues so that participants can work through and practice the skills of dialogue.

The remaining sessions scheduled for 2010 are:

Dialogue Between Genders:

- Monday, July 19 from 2 pm – 4 pm

Dialogue Across Cultures:

- Thursday, October 21 from 9 am – 11 am

Organization Development & Training Division

Our mission is to constantly build organizational effectiveness by providing the material and conceptual resources needed to improve performance and enhance the quality of work life. We are committed to the continuous growth and development of our people.